About Us

Munchery is a whole new way to eat. Founded in 2011 by Tri Tran and Conrad Chu as a better way to feed their families (they just couldn’t face greasy take-out yet again), Munchery cooks and delivers chef prepared meals throughout the Bay Area, Seattle, New York, and Los Angeles. Our website, apps, and behind-the-scenes tech make it all possible, but we know it’s the food that comes first for our customers. We’re a mix of food-loving techies and tech-loving foodies who believe everyone deserves real food, so we work hard to make eating well as easy as possible.
